DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The house at Brookside Farm is a two story, four bay brick structure with Flemish bond at the front elevation and common bond at the side and rear walls. Interior woodwork reflects the influence of the Greek Revival period. The house has two front doors centered in the principal elevation. Extending from one end of the building is a one and a half story, one bay extension. The house would appear to date from the mid 19th century. Also present is a large frame bank barn and various agricultural outbuildings. Further information on this property may be found in the following book: Ankrum, Freeman. Sidelights on Brethren History. Elgin, Ill: Brethren Press. 1962.
